The whipping post has been created in Maryland for the especial benefit wife besters. It is a punishment in kind, and will, undoubtally, put an end to shat form of asserting martal authority. A wife beaker once subjected on an official doss of rawhide, as one was in latimore the other day, will be careful how he lays his hand on the woman wao has the misfortune to be his wife. We have often regretor the indepensive of the law when brates are been brought before our palice court for chipping their wires; finerand sentences to be city jail are insufficient quinterment for the castly offense. The Maryland penalty alone stately covers and fits such cases.
